

LWV Energy Session
September 19-21, 2018
Huntington, WV

Wednesday September 19

2:00 pm Optional tour Blenko
6:30- 9:00 pm Welcome class at the Fairfield Inn

Thursday September 20 Session held at the RCBI for Advanced Technologies

1050 4th Ave, Huntington, WV 25701

8:00 am Breakfast served at the Fairfield Hotel
8:30 am Carpool to RCBI
9:00 am Welcome to Huntington
Mayor Steve Williams
9:30 am Energy News in West Virginia
Brian J. Anderson, Ph.D. (invited)
GE Plastics Material Engineering Professor & Director of the WVU Energy Institute
10:30 am Break
10:45 am The Impact of the Oil & Gas Industry in WV
Erin Magee'99, President Energy & Mineral Law Foundation (EMLF)
Development in Exploration and Production
Maribeth Anderson'07, Manager, Community & Government Relations-WV Division, Antero
Resources (invited)
Anne Blankenship'13, Executive Director, WV Oil & Natural Gas Association
Midstream Sector Issues
Robert Orndorff '99, Senior Policy Advisor State and Local Affairs, WV Dominion Resources,
Atlantic Coast Pipeline
Downstream Use of Natural Gas
12:00 pm Lunch served
1:15pm Overview of Technology Innovation
Kirk Gerdes'18, Ph.D., Senior Technical Adviser to the Director, The National Energy Technology (NETL) – US Department of Energy national laboratory that produces technological solutions to America's energy challenges.
2:00 PM Break
2:15 PM Media Training
Marysue Knowles, Senior Consultant, Anne Green Communications
5:00 PM Adjourn
6:30 PM Dinner at La Famiglia

Friday September 21

7:45 am Breakfast served at the Fairfield Hotel
Class Project discussion
9:00 am Depart of tour of Heritage Farm Museum
10:45 am Depart for lunch and tour of AEP John Amos Plant Winfield Road, WV
3:00 pm Adjourn

Special thanks to our session partner, Jackson Kelly PLLC and to our community partner, Dominion Energy.
Event sponsors and others whose support helped to make this session possible: Ann Green Communications,
Heritage Farm Museum, Huntington Regional Chamber of Commerce, Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough, LLP,
Robert C. Byrd Institute, SLS Land & Energy Development and WVONGA.